

Today we celebrate the 73rd anniversary of the first Social Security check to be issued. Since it was signed into law, Social Security has brought certainty and security to millions of American seniors. In Connecticut alone, 1 out of every 6 residents received Social Security benefits in 2010, keeping hundreds of thousands of Connecticut seniors out of poverty.