This year we celebrated the 77th anniversary of Social Security being signed into law by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Over the last 77 years, Social Security has brought certainty and security to millions of American seniors. In Connecticut alone, 1 out of every 6 residents received Social Security benefits in 2010, keeping hundreds of thousands of Connecticut seniors out of poverty.