

Congressman John B. Larson will hold a Town Hall Meeting at the Newington Senior and Disabled Center on May 27th at 10:30 am.

Larson will discuss the Republican budget – which would end Medicare as we know it and put Social Security on the fast-track to privatization, the federal deficit, health care, and other topics of importance to seniors.

The Newington Town Hall is part of a continuing series of meetings the Congressman has held to hear from Connecticut seniors. It follows successful town halls this year in West Hartford and Wethersfield.

□ From a New Britain Herald report:

Larson reminded the group in Wethersfield that under President George W. Bush Republicans tried to privatize Social Security. He says the GOP still wants to see it sold through private health insurers.

“Will this happen?” someone asked Larson.

“Not as long as I’m able to draw breath,” Larson vowed. “America is telling us that Social Security may need fixing and that we (in Congress) may need to do the fixing.”
