

Congressional Action for COVID-19 Relief

PACKAGE ONE

The first bipartisan congressional package to address COVID-19 consisted of an $8.3 billion emergency supplemental appropriations bill. It appropriated funds to develop and research a vaccine, fund public health programs, procure pharmaceuticals and medical supplies, facilitate the development of new therapies and treatments, and helped small businesses, to cushion the economic blow of this public health emergency.

PACKAGE TWO

The second bipartisan congressional COVID-19 bill, the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, secured free COVID-19 testing and provided family and worker protections. The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (H.R. 6201):

- Established free testing for COVID-19 for all Americans.
- Secured emergency paid leave with two weeks of paid sick leave and up to three months of paid family and medical leave.
- Secured enhanced Unemployment Insurance, a step that will extend protections to furloughed workers.
- Strengthened nutrition security initiatives, including SNAP, student meals, seniors' nutrition, and food banks.
- Increased federal funds for Medicaid to support our local, state, tribal, and territorial governments and health systems, so that they have the resources necessary to combat this crisis.

PACKAGE THREE

The third bipartisan congressional COVID-19 funding bill (CARES Act) is a nearly $2 trillion relief package to help American families, businesses, and workers get back on their feet. It includes:

- $350 billion for Paycheck Protection Program for small businesses
- $100 billion for hospitals and health care providers
- Direct one-time payments of $1,200 to most American adults
- An expansion of unemployment insurance and other social safety net programs

PACKAGE FOUR

On April 24, 2020, the Paycheck Protection Program and Health Care Enhancement Act (H.R. 266) became law. This coronavirus emergency funding bill which allocates $484 billion to strengthen the Paycheck Protection Program and Economic Impact Disaster Loans for small businesses, $75 billion for hospitals and other health care providers, funding to secure resources for frontline workers, and funding to expand testing capacity nationwide.

PACKAGE FIVE

On May 15, 2020, Congress passed a fourth major relief bill, the Heroes Act. The bill has not been voted into law. It remains on Senator McConnell's desk. It includes:

- $200 billion for essential worker hazard pay and funds.
- $75 billion for COVID-19 testing, tracing, and isolation.
- Building on the bipartisan CARES Act which ensured free testing, the Heroes Act would fund free COVID-19 treatment.
- COBRA subsidies for health coverage for the millions of Americans who have lost their employee- provided health coverage.
- Continues necessary programs such as the Paycheck Protection Program, Economic Impact Disaster Loans, and extends unemployment benefits.
- One-time $1,200 relief payments for each family member up to $6,000.
- $175 billion in housing and renter assistance.
- $875 billion in relief for state and local governments.